In realization of the need for training better quality technicians to meet the large-scale industrialization of the country, the Ministry of Education, Government of India, on the recommendations of All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), established four Regional Technical Teachers' Training Institutes (now National Institute of Technical Teachers' Training & Research, (NITTTR) at Bhopal, Chandigarh, Chennai and Kolkata in 1967. The institute at Chandigarh, started in collaboration with Royal Netherlands Government (up-to 1974), was designed to meet the requirements of developing polytechnic education in the northern region covering the then states/UTs of Jammu and Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh, Punjab, Haryana, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Delhi and Chandigarh. The institute during this time acted as a resource system to technical education and provided guidance at national, state and institution levels in policy formulation, planning and management, quality controls etc. The institute is registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 and is managed by a Board of Governors.

To achieve its stated objectives, the institute undertakes the following spectrum of activities: Education and Training Programmes; Curriculum Development; Instructional Material Development; Research and Development; Extension Services; Consultancy in Technical Education and Technology areas.
